

Pinewood Performing Arts is committed to ensuring the safety of our instructors and participants of our audition workshops during the current pandemic. Below are our precautions based on the level of risk in Lancaster County (<https://lincoln.ne.gov/city/covid19/>):

*Each level is cumulative starting at green and adding on as the risk goes up

Green - Low Risk

- Zoom option for those who don't feel comfortable joining in person
- Hand Sanitizer available
- Thorough disinfection between workshops
- A face covering must be worn while singing

Yellow - Moderate Risk

- Entrance policy
 - Only one parent or guardian may enter with a participant
 - A face covering must be worn while waiting to enter
 - A no-touch thermometer will be used before entering - Anyone with a temperature 100.4 or higher will be asked to participate remotely
 - All participants will wash hands or use hand sanitizer before entering the room for the workshop
- Face coverings required for instructors and participants
- No tactile contact within workshop
- Participants and instructors distanced 6 feet apart

Orange - High Risk

- Max 5 people in person
- No across the floor work

Red - Severe Risk

- Remote participation only
